12.2. The data subject may exercise his rights either himself or through a representative.

12.3. Where the request is submitted to the Company by the data subject’s representative, the request shall state the representative’s first name, surname, place of residence and contact details as well the first name, surname and place of residence of the represented person and information on the specific right of the data subject to be exercised including the scope of the exercise; the request shall be accompanied by a representation document.

12.4. In order to verify your identity, we may also ask you to indicate relevant data (e.g. name, date of birth, e-mail address, or telephone number) or send a control notification at the last contact (SMS or e-mail), asking to take an authorization action, as well as we may request additional documents or data. If the verification procedure fails, we will be forced to state that you are not the Data subject of the requested data and we will have to reject your request.

- 12.5. Upon receipt of your request regarding implementation of any right of yours and having successfully performed the above-indicated verification procedure, we undertake without undue delay, but in any case, no later than within one month after receipt of your request and completion of the verification procedure, to give you information about actions we took regarding your request. Regarding the complexity and number of requests, we have the right to extend the period of one month for two more months, informing you about it before the end of the first month and indicating reasons for such an extension.
- 12.6. If your request is submitted electronically, we will give the answer to you electronically, too, unless it is impossible (e.g. due to a particularly large scope of information) or when you request to provide an answer in some other way.
- 12.7. We have the right to refuse to satisfy your request by our reasoned written response under the conditions and grounds provided for in legal acts. We will provide you with information free of charge, however, if your requests are manifestly unfounded or disproportionate, in particular because of their repetitive content, we may require a reasonable fee to cover administrative costs or may refuse to act upon your request.

13. Final provisions

- 13.1. We have the right to change this Privacy policy periodically in order to properly reflect how we process your Personal data.
- 13.2. If any provision of the Privacy policy shall be found to be invalid or unenforceable, this provision does not affect the legality and validity of the remaining provisions of the Privacy policy.
- 13.3. Last update: 28/04/2025.
